

This marks a significant achievement of Assistant Chief Justin Crow. We are incredibly proud to recognize Justin for earning his Bachelor of Science in Fire Administration from Columbia Southern University.

Justin's dedication and hard work in balancing his demanding role with his studies is truly commendable. This accomplishment not only highlights his commitment to personal growth but also his passion for enhancing our fire department's operations.

We also want to acknowledge the unwavering support from Justin's family, friends, and colleagues who have been with him every step of the way.

With his new degree, Justin is poised to bring even more innovation and leadership to our department, benefiting our community greatly.

Please join me in congratulating Assistant Chief Justin Crow on this remarkable achievement. We are all incredibly proud of you, Justin.
